Shout out to our students who are creative, curious, and deploy to change the world!

- Joi
Cameron (Taylor) – Thanks for being proactive in community building, for caring about minorities, and for being super nice! I'm very grateful for having you in our lab.
Kelly Donovan because she's literally superwoman
Maggie Church - for her good humor and ability to make everything work... seemingly effortlessly!

- Beth Zonis
Tashi - Thank you for feeding me on the regular!
Miguel Perez is super talented, kind, and generous with his time. You've made my time at lab that much more fun and interesting!
Monica, Keira, Amanda & Linda - thanks for keeping us grounded, fed, and sane. Your presence really makes a difference!
Kristy Johnson – Thanks for being an inspiration to graduate mothers and mothers-to-be!
Thanks to the Synthetic Neuro group for all of the love and attention and making me feel like one of the gang in my new home away from home. Especially Cynthia for always keeping an eye on me.

- Brady
Thank you Mike Wang and Phillip Caesar, for being the kickass UROPs!
Meng for tremendous effort on Tega robot assembly!

- Robot Mom
To Lifelong Kindergarten students and staff: Thanks for making LLK such a caring and creative community!

- Mitch Resnick
Dhaval Adjodah – impossibly relaxed, incredibly friendly. He has helped me relax and approach the world more playfully -- even when we disagree :)
Sang-Won Leigh, for being an UNREAL labmate.
Ariel Ekblaw – For being a super sweet, inspiring, and productive human!
Mina Soltangheis – In just two short meetings, I have come to adore you so much for your incredible warmth and genuineness. There are very few people who can treat others with so much unconditional love and respect. I hope and I know for sure that the best things in life will happen for you always. Wish you all the happiness in the world Mina!
MAS offices, who make bureaucracy almost enjoyable 😊
Ryan McCarthy, for being an incredible ally of my research and for his #actionable_support!
Thanks to the dogs of the Media Lab for providing much needed breaks and stress relief throughout the day!
Rahul Bhargava repeatedly earns my respect and gratitude. He is always generous with his time and advice, and his community-minded spirit has helped ensure that the Center for Civic Media is both a welcoming and a productive space.

- Erhardt Graeff
Linda you are amazing, thank you for your great support :)
- Mina
Dan Levine, thank you for being such a great person :) I appreciate all of our random conversations. They often make me happy.
Thanks Heather!
You are the best.
Cindy Hsin-Liu Kao and Randi Williams for supporting and giving amazing talks at MIT's SidPac COSI Graduate Student Seminar Series. This series provides MIT students the venue for more scholarly and open interactions with their peers.

- Neil Gaikwad
Linda Peterson for all your support when I was going through the worst. Thank you.
Thank you, Bianca Datta, for being an amazing fellow-student mentor and for all that you do for the Lab!

RAK Week Shout-Outs
Dan Novy, thank you for always being willing to stop and listen to a friend!
Juliana Nazare, thank you for organizing social events to help people maintain friendships and sanity!
Thank you to Kevin, Cornelle & Candido for always being so friendly and supportive!
Morgan in Scalable Cooperation for being an amazing guy. He always brings me out on the greatest walks, makes me lovely home-brought dinner and plays with me when I'm not feeling sleepy (which I am almost always). Sometimes he even brings me to the lab so I can socialize! I highly recommend him for his awesome research skills and great behind-the-ears petting.

- Mocha (the dog)
Stephanie Gayle – Considerate, funny, and always makes me laugh! Thanks for looking out, friend.
Jessica Tsymbal – For dealing with all the construction and space craziness.
To all the admins who support our faculty and students. You keep this place running and we are grateful for you!

- MAS Office
Shout out to John Min, Avery Normandin, Sebald Verkuijl, & Erika Alden DeBenedictis for being wonderful lab mates and putting up with my constant shrieking.
Hae Won Park for getting best paper nomination at HRI 2017!

- Robot Mom
Polly Guggenheim – She punches us (students) when we’re being silly in an affectionate way.
Jackie Kory Westlund. She's a great friend and colleague! She helps me with my writing all the time. Plus, her baby Elian is so cute. ;P
Madison Evans. I love her passion for sewing, making, arts, Harry Potter, Star Wars, Pokémon, robots and many more! So enthusiastic and compassionate at the same time.
Yasmin Chavez. Such a hardworking and self-driven learner! Couldn't have made the new robot without her... I love how chill she is in the midst of busyness.
Cynthia Breazeal. She's an awesome advisor! Also, she manages to be so accomplished and fashionable at the same time! :D
Meng Xi - Amazingly thorough and detail-oriented. Many of our robots are now in much better conditions & well used, thanks to his robot-care!
Shout out to our faculty who lead the way and imagine and make the future!

- Joi
Hae Won Park. She's always full of fun and clever robot ideas!
Bjarke Felbo for being an awesome supervisor :))
